Candid Creation Publishing LLP

About Us

Candid Creation Publishing LLP is founded by Phoon Kwee Hian in 1999. Leveraging on her extensive experience as published author, publisher and literary critic, Candid Creation Publishing understands the needs of our authors and readers and is thus able to add value to books that are published with us.

We have published over 100 books in a wide variety of genres from literature, arts, humanities, finance, critical prose, medical, health and fitness, personalities profile, children literature, music etc. till date. We take pride in our professional editorial and design services which have helped us gain the invaluable support of many authors and readers.

Candid Creation Publishing is discerning on the authors we worked with and the books we published. We have always valued quality over quantity as our vision is to build a brand name for “Published in Singapore” books.

With our creative ideas, eye-catching design, professional and efficient service and strength in promotion and distribution, books published by us are very well-received by readers. Our literary books are especially popular in schools and are often recommended by teachers for supplementary reading.

With our professional and high-quality production, we became a publisher-of-choice for many renowned personalities by word of mouth. Besides helping authors to publish their works, our creativity has also been recognised by government bodies and they have given us tremendous support. In 2004, we received support from Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports to publish a book entitled “The Joy of Grandparenting”. In 2005, we partnered Team Singapore from Singapore Sports Council to produce and published a first-of-its-kind series of 3 books in 4 language editions entitled “Singapore Sporting Icons Series.”
